PERFECT SUBJECTS for the camera art of Bandi Binder are Lisa and Scott Buck, children of Mrs. Wendy Buck of Carmel. The Hungarian born photographer divides his work year between Carmel, Argentina and Uraguay where he has earned a reputation for sensitive portraiture posed with charming naturalness. (For more pictures by Bandi Binder see pages 10-11.)

CURRENT EXHIBIT in the Green Room of the Tantamount Theatre included work by two new Valley artists, Doris Schuler and Steve Antoncich. Doris, who has painted for the past five years, has 15 paintings in the show. Steve has been doing metal sculpture for the past year, and has seven pieces exhibited. ABOVE-Steve explains the intracacies of making his favorite piece, "The Seahorse," to Doris, whose "Still Life" hangs in the background. The show will remain on exhibit through the month of November.

OK's disbanded; Leaders tell why

Even though the OK's (Organized Kids) group which was formed last year for pre-teen age youngsters is not continuing this year, those who were active in it felt that it filled a definite need at the time.

According to Dr. Pat May, the dedicated helpers that assisted her have joined in saying that there was excellent cooperation, but the problem was that those kids who joined in were already very busy. The ones that they really wanted to get interested weren't interested in them.

The regulars who helped organize and direct the many activities were Louise Neidinger, Nancy Cal, Laura Wolf and Ron Melanson. Other parents assisted them as well.

But at a time when a number of pre-teen youngsters were getting into trouble because "there wasn't anything to do," just getting the kids organized and busy for a while helped break a pattern.

No more open burning unless it rains again

Unless there is more rain today, open burning will again be prohibited, according to Carmel Valley Fire Chief Chip Collins.

Open burning, with a permit, has been allowed since Saturday's rain, but Chip said that by Wednesday, the danger would be up unless more rainfall occured.

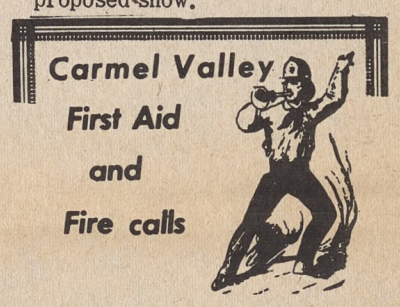
So, after today, be sure and check with the Fire Department before starting to burn. Phone 650-2021 between 8:30 and 5 p.m.

Baez Institute may be on TV

The Institute for the Study of Non-Violence on Upper Carmel Valley Road may be the subject of a future Merv Griffin television show or a TV special, it was disclosed this week.

Regular sessions at the school were recorded in color last week for a "pilot" film by the producers of the Griffin show who are also the highly lauded documentary producers, Para Dime of New York.

Ira Sandperl conducted the sessions, some of which were attended by Joan Baez and her mother and Attorney Francis Heisler of Carmel as well as some 22 students. The camera and sound crew also attended Miss Baez' Berkeley concert Friday night, parts of which might also be included in the proposed show.



Oct. 31 - 7:13 p.m., T.W. Hansen House on Middle Canyon Road, unauthorized open burning.

EDITORIAL

Advisory Boards are the watch dogs

We realized while attending last week's Advisory Board meeting that many people in the Valley are unaware of the three way watch dogs which we have to safeguard development here.

This protection begins with the Upper Valley advisors and Lower Valley Advisory Boards, which are just that. Before any application comes before the County Planning Commission in Salinas, it first is discussed at the Advisory Board level. Its pros, cons and legality are examined and then the board recommends action on it. This is a recommendation...nothing else.

However, in most cases, the Planning Commission is most respectful of these recommendations, since the Advisory Board is right here...in the local area, and is sometimes more aware of the ramifications of each application than those who are sitting in Salinas.

So, after PlanCom has heard the Board's decision and reasons for it, the commissioners act upon the application...by acceptance, denial or continuance for more information.

However, this is still not the end...for if there are persons involved who are still not satisfied with the decision, it can be appealed to the Board of Supervisors.

The main flaw that we have noticed is that many persons are unaware of a matter coming up at the Advisory Board level...and hear of it only after it has been passed onto the Planning Commission. Property involved is posted with the date of the PlanCom meeting, but not with that of the Advisory Board.

In the future the Outlook will cooperate with the Board in making this information available to the public in time so that interested parties may attend the first level meeting where their voices can be heard at the onset of an application rather than later.

WEATHERSCOPE

Thanks to the Middle School Parent-Faculty Club, the Science Department now can give all the up-to-date information on wind velocity, wind direction, temperature and barometric pressure. This complete unit made possible by a $250 donation from the Parent-Faculty Club is now installed and in operation. They hope to issue daily weather forecasts to all students and faculty.

FREE ART DAYS

We have been trying an experiment this semester. Every "C", "F", and "H" days, boys and girls in every grade are offered the free use of the art room during 8th and/or 9th period (40 min. each). The students ask their teacher if they can go to the art room to make something for the class or simply to create a work of art. Students who are waiting for a bus may also drop in. Mr. Broadman asks that each student clean up his material by 3:20. So far it has been very successful (60 students one day) in October, Halloween, 7th and 8th Grade decorations, and classroom projects were all stimulating students at once. Please remind your boy or girl that "Free Art" days are on "C", "F", and "H" days and they are welcome to paint, draw, glue, print and so on.

DETENTION CLASSES

To help deter tardies, lack of application and other - shall we say "minor" - disciplinary problems we have instituted an after school detention class two nights a week. (Tuesdays and Thursdays) Parents will be notified in advance when their child is to be detained after school. So far enrollment has been averaging about six per session.

The Rhyming Philosopher

CONSIDERATION

We go about our daily occupations
Engrossed in present tasks, and yelp about
The price of beans or latest stock quotations,
Ignoring all those folks who helped us out.

If someone pleases you with care or kindness,
Or helps your day become less wearisome,
Do you through ignorance or bashful blindness
Just take it all for granted and stay dumb?

The payment people get in terms of money
Is not the sum of all that seems worthwhile;
But words of praise make dark days turn to sunny,
And maybe change a tear into a smile.

The postman at your door deserves a greeting,
The driver of your bus a word of thanks,
And all the business people you'll be meeting,
Without forgetting both the cops and cranks.

And when your local paper gives you pleasure
Just mail a card and voice the way you feel.
While praising others metes a priceless treasure,
You also give yourself a better deal.

Brinton Hardware opens new store with gala ceremonies last weekend

CHS Football

Carmel High varsity gridders plowed the mud last rainy Saturday to smear San Lorenzo Valley for a 15-7 win on the home field.

The Padre freshmen turned in a nice 20-7 victory, while the JVs were nosed out 13-7 their second loss in four years. Carmel's frosh reserves won their game 7-6.

Friday evening the Carmel squads travel to Santa Cruz to meet Holt Cross. The frosh are scheduled to play at 4:30, junior varsity at 6:15 and varsity at 8. Rooter bus tickets are available from the Rally Club.

Fullback Lance Lighthall, making his first appearance for the varsity, rushed 102 yards through the San Lorenzo line. Tailback Malcolm Hall, also running for the first time for the varsity, chalked up another 80 yards. Receiving ends were Pete Shaw and Bill Rees.

Defensively, the Padres played brilliantly, holding the Cougars to minor gains. Rocking San Lorenzo were halfbacks Jim DeAmarel and Mark Czirban, linebackers Tom Millott, tackle Jay Argust, ends Scott Morris and Mike Dress, center guard Steve Taylor and safety Chris Laiolo. Kicking off and receiving punts were Chris Smith, Lighthall and Hall.

Effective offensive blocking was by guards Royer and Millott and tackles Randy Siino and Taylor, facilitating the running of Lighthall and Hall.

San Lorenzo took the lead in the second quarter, but Hall carried the ball over the line for a touchdown shortly after. The pass to Rees tied up the game 7-7.

WINNING TOUCHDOWN

The winning touchdown came for the Padres in the final quarter when Morris blocked a San Lorenzo punt on their own nine yard line. Lighthall rushed to score.

In the final minute of the contest, Morris and Siino pushed the Cougars into the end zone for a Carmel safety, giving the final 15-7 victory.

JVs

Defensively, the Padre JVs played commendably, particularly Jim Conlan, David Wade, Pete Ingalls, Bob Thompson, Al Harber and Jon Fletcher.

The Carmel lone score came from a pass by Kevin Cunningham to Ward Gillette who sprinted more than half the field to score. A pass to Mark Belangee added the PAT.

FROSH

Touchdowns in the freshman game were by Al Hood, Ted Hall, and Todd Gebhart.

New optometric office opens in CV Village Shopping Center

Complete optometric service is now available in Carmel Valley since Dr. L.A. Holine opened his office last week in the Talbot Building, in the Village Center.

Dr. Holine and his wife, Virginia, with son Richard, 14 and daughter, Ruth 11, are making their home on Dorris Drive.

GLEN H. MEWHINNEY, Owner

In The Village Plaza on Del Fino Pl., Carmel Valley Village

BILL STONE, art teacher at Carmel High School, shows his wife Nancy, where the bright new Cadillac was parked in his water-color painting of an old dilapidated house. He eliminated the car in the painting even though it belonged to the owner of an old building.

CHS art teacher paints with versatility ... makes ties too

One of the most versatile artists we've run into in quite a while displayed the many media which he uses in a one man invitational show last week.

Bill Stone, art teacher at carmel High School, presented a collection of 48 works in an outdoor exhibition at the home of his partner, Glen Myers in Carmel Valley.

Bill and Glen are partners, not in the painting business, but in the tie-making business where they have become well known locally for their brilliantly, original cravats.

One of the newest media which Bill has been using is an outgrowth of the tie business. His collages, made with bits and pieces of tie material, were bright little gems of color and imagination.

Another collage which had the look of a combination water and acrylic (if one can imagine such a combination) was made from a single issue of Life magazine and portrayed Fishermen's Wharf with a warmth and vitality rarely seen in this most photographed and painted of the Peninsula attractions.

Water colors with a fresh detail, were excellent, particularly those of old weathered buildings.

VARIED TECHNIQUES

From there one went to abstracts in acrylic which looked as though they must have been painted by someone else. Rather than a one-man show; it looked like a three or four-man exhibit, so varied were the techniques and approach.

We particularly reacted to a watercolor entitled "Alvise Revisited," an old building half sagging and somewhat dilapidated

Bill pointed out that in front of the building there should be a Cadillac, because the man that lives in this old shack is really a millionaire and while he was painting it there was a brand new Caddy parked in front of it.. somehow...it wouldn't have added anything to the painting.

Bill and his wife Nancy, met at Medical Illustration School in Boston where they were both studying. Bill is certified medical illustrator which he did for three years before deciding to go into teaching.

They were married before finishing school, and while Nancy does some painting as a hobby, she hasn't continued medical illustration. Her time is well taken up with David who is 11, Laura who is nine, and Jennifer who is seven.

UC GRAD

Before attending the Boston School, Bill had graduated from UC-Berkeley. He then attended San Jose State to receive his teaching credential and then taught for five years at Campbell Junior High School in San Jose before coming to Carmel High four years ago.

The tie business was born about two years ago when Bill bought some original creations and was horrified at the price. He then decided he would try to make his own, which he did, by hand.

From there he did them on the machine and began distributing them among friends. Girls in his classes at the high school were fascinated and began bringing him brightly colored scraps left over after their dressmaking.

As an outgrowth of presenting a tie to him, Bill and Glen Myers got together in a tie-making partnership. Glen teaches electrical engineering at the Navy Postgraduate School. It was his idea to utilize the scraps for cloth-collage work....and then he organized the reception and outdoor art show at The Myers home on Brookdale Drive.

LEISURE TIMES

"The Lion in Winter" to open Friday at Circle Theatre

The Community Theatre has announced as its second presentation of the season, James Goldman's "The Lion in Winter," under the direction of Michael Keller. It will open Nov. 15 at the Circle Theatre.

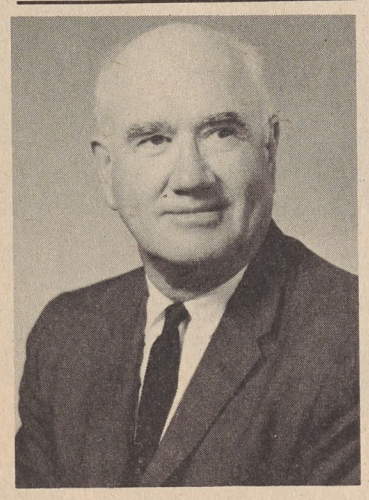
History buffs will be especially interested in this brilliant comedy-drama which has as its protagonists Henry Plantagenet of England and his queen, the remarkable Eleanor of Aquitaine.

It is Christmas, 1183, and King Henry II has gathered his family for a reunion. In attendance are his three sons, Richard Lionheart, who at twenty-six, has already earned a formidable reputation as a soldier; Geoffrey, twenty-five, crafty, able, the best brain of a brainy family; and teenage John, a charming boy, secure in the knowledge that he is his father's favorite. One of these is to become King of England... but which one?

It is on this question that the plot turns. Henry is determined to have John succeed him; Eleanor is equally determined that Richard will be King.

Due to the mature content of "The Lion In Winter," the Community Theatre does not recommend it for children.

Assisting the director is Ruth Jordan Allan as Production Assistant, Gloria Z. Wheeler and Ruth Fry as stage managers, Scott Wheeler as sound technician, with costumes by Gia.



A SPECIAL CEREMONY of "Piping in the Haggis" will include an address by Chalmer C. McWilliams of Carmel at the Mark Thomas Inn Nov.23. On this Saturday evening the Scottish Society of the Monterey Peninsula will hold its annual dinner and tartan ball. Cocktails at 6:30 and dinner at 7:30 p.m. will begin the black tie or Highland dress affair. Tickets at $21 per couple may be secured by sending a check to Donald R. Brown, 555 Abrego St., Monterey. Proceeds will be contributed to the Peninsula YMCA.

"The Hunt" to play at MPC

"The Hunt," selected as "one of the ten best films of 1967" by the New York Times, will be shown at Monterey Peninsula College Nov. 9, 7:30 p.m. in the lecture-forum building.

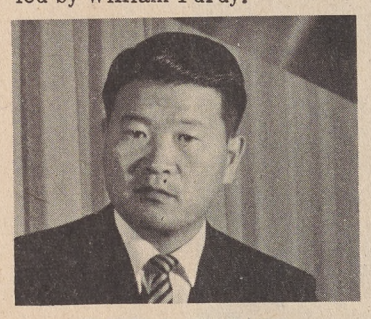
Tickets, at $1 for adults and 75 cents for students, may be purchased at the auditorium door on the performance night. Season ticket holders are advised that the screening is scheduled for Saturday, rather than Friday.

BETTY FOWLSTON stars in "First Lady" playing at Sunset Center Theater in Carmel November 8,9,15 and 16 at 8:30 p.m. and November 10 and 11 at 2:30 p.m. The George S. Kaufman satire on Washington politics is a presentation of Frohman Productions for the benefit of the National Council on Alcoholism. Tickets are available at the Council's office 624-2256, and at Central Box Office in Carmel or Abinante's Music Store in Monterey.

Valley Chapel concert set for November 17

The Seung-Paik Park and James Hull concert which was first scheduled for Oct. 27 will definitely be held at the Carmel Valley Community Chapel Sunday evening, Nov. 17.

Mr. Hull will sing tenor solos by Scarlatti and Puccini, Hageman, Manning, Munro and Leon Cavallo. He will be accompanied by William Purdy.



SEUNG PAIK PARK

Mr. Park will play a Chopin Ballade and "Concertostuck" by Weber. His wife, Sunzah Park, will play second piano.

A popular soloist with the Carmel Bach Festival and the Monterey Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Hull has also sung at the Circle Theatre. He teaches music for the Monterey School District.

Mr. Park, Chapel organist for the past nine years, studied piano in Korea and Japan and gave concerts in Northern China, Manchuria and Japan before coming to the United States in 1950.

The public is invited to attend and meet the artists and enjoy refreshments after the concert. Donations, which are not obligatory, will benefit the Chapel organ fund.

A MEMO FOR YOU... from COMMUNITY THEATRE OF THE MONTEREY PENINSULA

1. If you haven't seen our current production of "Ready When You Are, C.B." better come Saturday, 'cause that's the last performance. (Friday is sold out).

2. Our next production "The Lion In Winter" may be the most controversial thing we've ever done. It's a ribald comedy described by Life Magazine as "..medieval 'Virginia Woolf'..." (We're afraid to ask if it were banned in Boston). Not recommended for children. Make reservations now. Opens six week-end run on Friday, November 15th.

3. The Saturday (Nov 16) performance is a benefit for Palo Colorado School. Friends of the school will hold a champagne reception at the theatre at 7, followed by dinner served by the school association. If you know this good cause, you will want to help by attending. Tickets at $10 include the reception, dinner and play.

4. Have you taken advantage of our new low prices? Adults, $2.25, students and/or military (with identification) $1.00.

5. Something else new is our curtain time on Sundays. Fridays and Saturdays are still 8:30, but Sunday curtain is at 7:30.

6. If you are a member of the Community Theatre (and if you're not, please become one) you will want to know that our annual meeting is scheduled for Monday, November 18th at 7:30 pm at the Circle Theatre.

7. Memberships help us a lot and save you money, too. Why not call the theatre office (624-2669) and ask Mr Keller for details?

Available light portraiture is specialty of Uraquayan photographer, Bandi Binder

BANDI BINDER was trained as a darkroom technician in his native Hungary before he came out to Argentina in 1935, and it was years later that he got behind a camera and found his true calling. "Learning on my own," he became a much-in-demand society photographer in the fashionable resort city of Punta del Este in Uraguay.

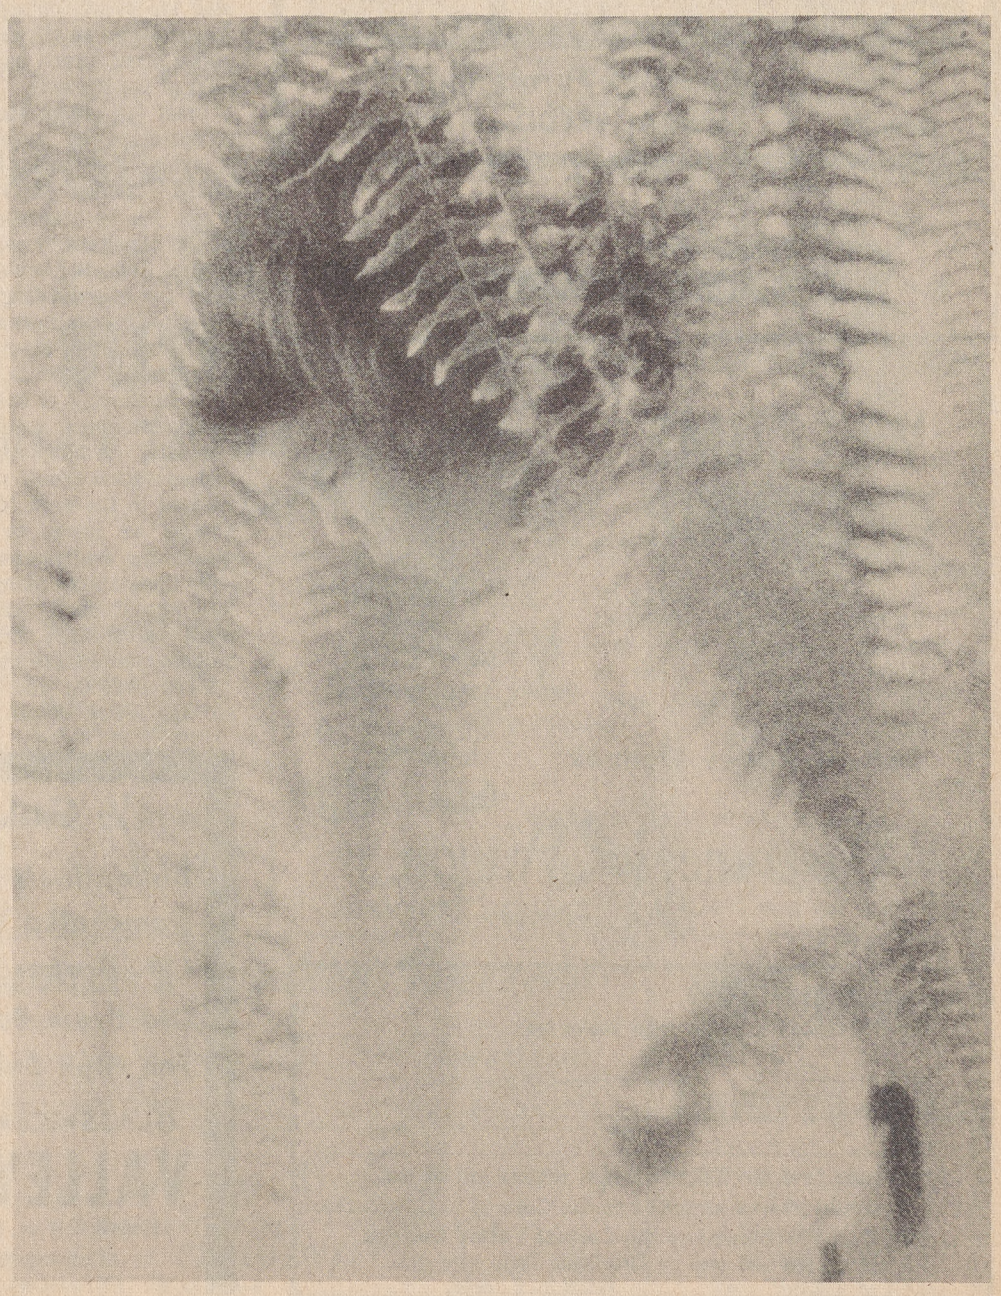
He credits Francesca Farr, daughter of the former State senator, with his migration in 1965 to Carmel. He had taken pictures of her while she was on a South American trip and she wrote him after her return to the Peninsula, urging him to come out for the summer months (winter in Uraguay).

He had no trouble finding friends in Carmel, but because he is "a bad promoter" he was slow to find clients. Now, however, Bandi spends nine months in Carmel, instead of two, and the rest of the year in Punta del Este.

Bandi Binder's favorite camera is a single lens reflex Bendacon Six for soft effects. He uses a 35mm Mamiya DTL for his portrait heads.

"FISH-EYE" snap shot by Lequita Taylor, of Bandi in his studio with Calaban his cat.

BANDI BINDER achieves his unaffected portrait compositions by never startling his subjects with a flash....using available light for a subtle poetry in black and white. (photo by Lequita)



THE CARMEL MUSEUM OF ART will present a Festival of Music with three filmed operas performed by the Bolshoi Opera Company. "The Tsar's Bride" by Rimsky Korsakov will be Sunday Nov. 10, "Boris Godunov" by Moussorgsky Nov. 20 and "Eugene Onegin" by Tchaikowsky Nov. 21. The November 21st performance of "EUGENE ONEGIN" by Tchaikowsky is a fluidly moving film; a delight to both eye and ear. Recommended to all music lovers, this opera has been hailed as Tchaikowsky at his greatest. An exclusive Monterey Peninsula showing, performances are at 7:30 and 9:30, November 21st. Tickets for all performances are available at the Carmel Museum of Art, Dolores and 7th (old Wells Fargo Bank building), P.O. Box 4241, or at the Village Theatre box office in Carmel. Only tickets purchased at the Museum benefit the Museum! Tickets are $2.00 for adults, $1.50 for students and military personnel, and $1.00 for children.

● Arts Coordinating Council decision

The meeting, chaired by Mrs. Rody B. Holt, was held at the Pacific Grove Community Center. Host for the meeting was the Pacific Grove Museum Association which was formed some three years ago in support of the Museum. Following a brief talk about the Museum Association by Verne Yadon, Curator, the Council began detailed planning of arts events which can be scheduled as part of the bicentennial celebration.

Mrs. Kenneth Ehrman, Chairman for coordinating the arts events of member organizations and integrating them into the bicentennial schedule, indicated four categories of council activities which can be developed.

Music, drama, visual arts and education are closely interrelated in the work of member groups as shown by a chart which she had produced, and, with imaginative planning, she felt, the Council can produce many talents and activities of bicentennial significance.

Organizations are urged to set the dates of all proposed events very soon so as to take advantage of state and national publicity being prepared by the Bicentennial Committee.

UNDER THE OAKS & AMONG THE CACTI

By Mildred Hattan

WOLFES ADOPT DAUGHTER

Happiness is a baby girl with dark curly hair...just ask Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wolfe who live at 3 Lower Circle. Laura and Larry have named their adopted daughter, Jennifer Gail, and, although she is only a week old, the sophistacated little miss has already attended her first dinner party.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Reuter had planned a surprise birthday party for Laura and conspired with Larry to tell Laura that Donna would take care of the baby while the Wolfes went out to dinner. Instead, Laura arrived to find a group of friends and relatives had been invited to help celebrate her birthday. Among those attending were Laura's mother Mrs. Martha Burnham, Linda and Bob Clothier, Diane and Andy Nottenkamper, Pat and Joyce Tracey, Nancy and Chuck Weitzeil, and Johnny and Fern Yarnel with Rita and Jim Bare.

MOVE TO FEATHER RIVER

Nancy and Warren Squires and three children said goodby last week before leaving to make their new home on the Feather River. The Squires family had made their home in the former Mervine residence on Garzas Road.

YOUTH SCIENCE CENTER

Many Carmel Valley families signed the guest register at the Youth Science Center in Salinas Sunday during their second annual open house.

With the addition of an aviary (construction donated by the Seabees) with two red-tailed hawks, some gambel quail, and a turkey buzzard, as well as a complex of outdoor pens, the visible growth of the Center over the past year was most impressive. Indoors by following an inked trail of Chiquita Bandito's (the raccoon adopted as the Center's mascot) footprints, visitors were able to view several rooms of fascinating science exhibits.

Among the new additions to the animal collection were chinchillas, chipmunks, a pair of snowy ferrets, a desert gopher snake, a desert coach whip snake, and a mother opossum and her cunning litter. The Center and the knowledgeable young people that served as guides are certainly a credit to our county.

ROBERT McKEVER, a vice-president of Crocker Citizens Bank and long a prominent figure in local financial and community affairs retired as manager of the Pebble Beach office on November 1.

He will continue to serve the bank as vice president and devote his attention primarily to customer and community relations from the Monterey headquarters.

LAFF-ALOT CLUB

Vera Stokes, a charter member of the "Laff-a-lot Club" entertained with a potluck luncheon recently at her home on Via Contenta. Mrs. Frank Ambrogio of Seaside organized the group of friends before World War II who have continued to meet twice monthly over the years. A game called Bunko is their favorite and the excitement is high as the ladies compete for prizes when the group meets monthly at an interchange of members' homes. Winners at Vera's party were Mrs. Walter Carter of Pacific Grove, first and Mrs. M. L. Edlavitch, of Pacific Grove, second.

Others attending were Mrs. Clara Weinger and Mrs. Tilly McDonald from Monterey; Mrs. Ruby Marrs of Carmel; Mrs. W.S. Sjotvedt, Mrs. Vivian Tumbelson, Mrs. Lila Cook, and Mrs. Walter Spangler of Pacific Grove, and guests Mrs. Don Draper and Mrs. Harvey Deal of Carmel Valley.

Girl Scouting is a character building organization for girls between the ages of 7 and 17. The Girl Scout program is designed to meet the needs and interests of girls of all races, creeds, nationalities and economic backgrounds. Girls learn to plan their activities, learn to make decisions and to serve their community. Girls learn to establish a strong and workable ethic code. The principles of democracy underscore the whole program structure.

There are over 300 Girl Scouts in Carmel and Carmel Valley. We cannot always "see" the things they are doing. You cannot observe a girl developing a sense of worth in herself or values for her future life-choices.

Girl Scouting can grow in a community when local civic-minded volunteers work directly with the girls. They give of their time and talents because they believe in the importance of such an organization for girls. You may call the Girl Scout House, 375-4482 for more details about what you can do in the program.

Girl Scouting is one of the Agencies supported by the Community Chest.

HAUNTED HOUSE!

By the eerie glow of kerosene lamps, "the Ghost of Garzas Canyon" slowly arose from behind an old chest to once again terrorize guests in the haunted house occupied by the Tim Condon family. The 'ghost' was really a sheet skillfully manipulated on a fishing pole by Tim Condon at the pre-Halloween Potluck dinner planned by the family for their daughter Colleen.

The setting for the real old fashioned Halloween affair was the ideally isolated Condon home. Children arrived in costume and enjoyed games with lots of prizes and the traditional apple bobbing. Centering the dinner table was a "Spooky Gingerbread House" a clever concoction made by Gloria which delighted both children and adults almost as much as her owl cake. Colleen's guests were Linda and Laurie McGlochlin, Ellen Savoldi, Paul, Danny, and Tony Leanza, Pam and Ronnie Gayman, Maureen, Danny, Katie Michael Salge.....and all of their parents!

TRIP TO GERMANY

Mrs. W.W. (Barbara) Robbins returned recently from a two month trip to Germany. While there, via auto, she and her brother drove to Zurich, Switzerland, where they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Franz Breer. Dr. Breer is the German Consul General there having served in the same capacity in San Francisco and later in London. They have many friends on the Monterey Peninsula.

While Mrs. Robbins and Mr. Schneider were in the Black Forest, they stayed at the Selighof Hotel in Baden-Baden. Co-owners of the hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Hartung of the Carmel Highlands. They attended the international horse races and also the international bicycle races.

Continuing their journey up the Rhine and southern Germany where stops were made in Alsace Loraine and the Saargebiet. In Bonn they were guests of several cousins among them Dr. and Mrs. Kurt G. Kiesinger. He is the German Reichschanzler.

ENTERTAIN JET CREW

On her return trip to California on an uninterrupted flight from Paris to San Francisco, Mrs. Robbins became acquainted with the crew of the Lufthansa Jet, "Senator". Since the crew had a two day layover in San Francisco, she invited them down for a full day divided between Carmel and the Valley. While here they were guests of Harry and Rascha Gillette at the Rancho Del Monte Resort for a swim and refreshments. Afterwards they enjoyed a barbecue at Mrs. Robbins' Boronda Road home and returned to the Bay Area at nine that evening.

Said Mrs. Robbins, "They have written pages of thank yous for the day never to be forgotten. These things serve very well to aid in international understanding and friendship."

BIRTHDAY BRUNCH

A birthday brunch honoring Paul Anthony was given Sunday at Rippling River Resort by Mrs. Phillip Walker. Guests began the fun -filled day with cocktails at Kathryn's home on Flight Road. Continuing on to Rippling River were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Redfield of Pacific Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Zipse of Pebble Beach Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith of Hacienda Carmel, Mrs. Rudi Malek of Monterey, and from the Valley: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hitchcock, Mrs. Richard Dick, and Jordan Hill. Mr. Anthony and his wife Frances invited the party to return to the Anthony home on Flight Road for birthday cake and champagne.

Night skiing this winter at Boreal Ridge

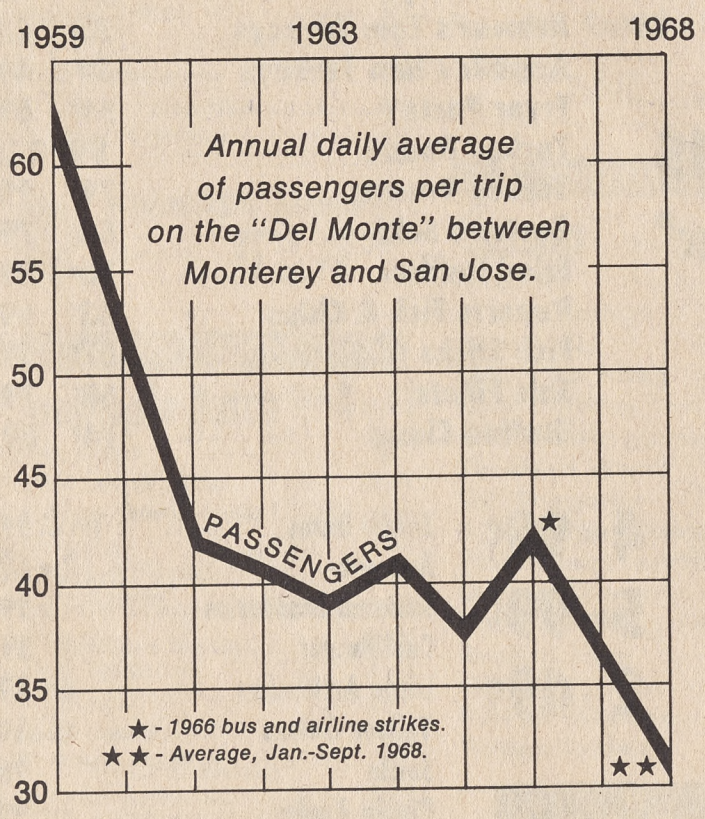
SKI buffs...attention! At Boreal Ridge on Interstate 80 this winter, you'll be able to ski at night as well as during daylight hours, according to W.R. Mensinger, president of Boreal Ridge.

Hopefully by Thanksgiving, the plan to illuminate the ski area from the ledge at the 7,200 foot level to the top of the ridge at 7,900 feet will be in operation. Present plans call for nighttime skiing at the T-Bar and green chairlift sections on Thursday through Sunday nights. The lifts will operate from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. on these days.

The project was designed by Mark Jensen of PG &E's office in Auburn. Mercury vapor lamps with underground electrical cable will be used to give a shadowless distribution of light. The lamps will be mounted on 40 foot poles outside the ski areas.

Do you take SP's "Del Monte" train between Monterey and San Jose?

If you do, you're one of only 31 passengers on the average daily trip!



The point is this: fewer and fewer people really need or want the "Del Monte."
